“ I took care of Mrs. Lola at Lodge at Brookline Nursing Home. She was my favorite resident, the oldest resident there. I never had a chance to say good bye. I just happened to be searching for her and her obituary came up. I'm in shock. One day we will meet again. I love you Mrs. Lola, I'm JaCorey

“ I've known Mrs. Johnson for almost 50 years. She and my grandmother, Maxine Stephens, were close friends, and I have the fondest memories of times shared with her at Allen Chapel, or when we'd all go to a restaurant. Mrs. Johnson always spoke affirming words over me and blessed me with her wisdom, kind words, and a smile that could light up a room. In her presence, I always felt a sense of peace. It has been an honor and privilege to know this amazing woman. I'm especially grateful for the moments I've had with her in recent years, and grateful for the technology that allowed me to video call with her—because a simple phone call wouldn't do. I don't know how she still made me feel like the excited little girl each time I would see or speak with her. I will miss her. I'm blessed to have known Mrs. Johnson!
