“ Lorie and I met when we were in the 5th grade, and as my mother used to say, we were "joined at the hip" throughout our childhood. We spent many hours talking on the phone or just hanging out together. As adults, we would spend hours talking about life in general; we shared our victories and accomplishments, as well as our disappointments and heartaches. Lorie was beautiful, hardworking, loyal, quick-witted, outspoken, articulate, unreserved. and unapologetic about who she was. I will miss seeing her gorgeous smile. Rest in peace, my friend.
