“ I just wanted to post for my son that loved his mawmaw so much. Not a day goes by that he doesn't ask when his mawmaw is coming home. If you was around her, you knew that Sir. was her bay bay. She use to say that he talk like she did when she was a kid, that is why she nicknamed him Radio.. I know he is gonna miss you momma and I'm going to make sure he makes you proud. You was the best grandma just like you was the best momma, daddy, and friend to me

“ Love you very much Mama, this is my 3rd time trying to post. Want to tell some of your story. You were not ordinary .You had SO Much love, and talent this picture you took with me on my 30th Birthday. I'm glad you made it. I was trying to get a group picture of the sisters for you but no one could make it. She loved cooking she could have owned a restaurant. People loved her Chitterlings, greens, sweet Potatoes pie.Her favorites was Hen and dressing, T-bone steak; greens, candied yams,Cornbread( not sweet)and Purple hull peas. She could sew almost anything she made me dresses when I was little( 4 or 5yrs.old). she made and designed dresses when she was a young lady.Got the talent from her mom and dad ( both could sew )Grand Pa was a Tailor at one time. And he would take Grand ma Mae Sue( Mama's a junior ,smile) to the store and one time she ( Grand ma Mae sue)saw a dress she liked, and he asked her if she wanted him to buy it for her? and she said no.But when she got home she made the same dress she had saw at the store. Mama could do the same, she made the orange curtains in the front room at her house with the backing on them, trim and all. She made a 2 piece dark green sued dress suit( she loved dress suits ), she had taken a class in sewing. She wore the suit to Church ,it was really nice. I'll miss going places with her. She loved "Panda bears" ,which is what she would lovingly call Panda express, we would laugh. She loved working for Sunbeam where she was a senior Companion, she have a long chain of pens (she would Proudly wear )a pen for each year great job Mama. She loved taken her companions places. She never met a stranger. She loved going to Church , singing in the choir ( when she was young her and Aunt Jewel, her sister, sung together ,Mama sound like Mahalia Jackson to me, seriously) love to hear her sing when she got serious. Fun facts : She use to heal babies and people would bring their babies to her. She use to could draw. She had a remarkable color palette. She loved the people she had worked and their families. She was always trying to tell people that drinking and drugs was not good. She never drunk nor smoked anything. SURVIVED domestic violence, after my dad passed( not a fun fact). She was a survivor and a very loving person. And continued to love.

*She loved that she was a Grandmother and Great- grandmother.
And she Loved her Children very much and wanted the best for us.
LOVE HER VERY MUCH she's always with me.*

“ This picture was for my Birthday. All my sister was suppose to be there but only Mama could make it. Thank you and love you very much. I'm glad I spoiled you with hugs and laying in your side( which was my special place), you never mind no matter how old I had gotten. I can't afford to miss you? I can't afford not to. My Princess (you know) I would not have traded you for anything.
