“ I've never met a more openly God loving person in my life in the last 40 plus years. Sis Suggs, my dear friend, the beautiful lady that my wife and I often referred to as "Mother Suggs" loved God so much; and that relationship between she and God played out time and time again as I witnessed God not only cure her of some of the illnesses she experienced, but God did so when that woman with a beautiful spirit did so by coming to church, getting down on her knees at her age and praying time and time again, and did so as others stood and prayed, you can't tell me God didn't bless her, I witnessed it, she received it! If my dear sister and friend we're here she would tell you never give up on God, seek Him, receive Him for He's worthy to be praised. May those who knew Sis Suggs keep her family in prayer.
