“ My sincere condolences to the family. I have fond memories of Mrs. Marie, whom I met seven years ago at Stoddard Nursing Home at the time I moved my mother there. It was a bittersweet moment seeing everyone sitting in the common area as you got off the elevator. I just love seeing everyone on the 2nd floor, we all had so many good times before the pandemic hit. We would do a lot of talking, laughing, and watching TV while sitting in the common area. Ms. Marie will be truly missed by loved ones and I will always remember her affectionate smile, and the love she had talking about her mother, I could tell she had fond memories of her and it was beautiful. I saw a special love she had with David it was so loving to see him treating her with loving care. May God rest her soul and know she is with us all still in love, memory, and family. May her memory bring the family comfort and peace. With Loving memories, Linda Roots

It is with mixed emotions that I write words of comfort for the loss of Mrs. Marie. I remember it like it was just yesterday when you moved your mother to Washington D.C. and how you made many adjustments personally, professionally and otherwise to ensure her daily comfort. You were a constant in her life and have been an amazing, dependable son throughout it all, even during the unforeseen challenges that lay ahead without ever once complaining. Your diligence and obedience to God's word is to be admired and one to emulate with pride. You kept her smiling and on her toes while never missing a week visiting her. I know this has been a really difficult time for you but I want to say to my best friend "You are beyond amazing and we see you! But most importantly God see's you. Continued blessings always!
