

Mrs. Marilyn Suzanne Dallas

June 20, 1940 - July 6, 2018

Marilyn Dallas was born on June 20, 1940, in Springfield, Illinois. Her mother Nilar Jewel Phillips; her twin, Carolyn Eakers; her step-daughter Sonja Tinsley, and her loving husband, the late Pastor Willard "Duke" Dallas, Sr., have all preceded her in death and are all with the Lord. Her children are: Gloria Hartsough, Willard Dallas, Jr., Wayne F. Dallas, Sr., Raymond Dallas, Cherry Donavan, Jewel Dallas-Bruner, and Mark Paul Dallas. She has 17 grandchildren, many other relatives, and a host of special friends that loved and adored her. She was a graduate of Douglas High School and a member of Faith, Hope, and Love Missionary Baptist Church that she and her husband founded. Marilyn was a wonderful, caring, and beautiful person inside and out. For many years she was a fantastic model, a cherished First Lady, and a Woman of God.

The Eastern Star Chapter - Lily of the Valley #7 will have their Memorial Ceremony on Friday from 5:30 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. and there will also be a wake from 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

“Sis. Marilyn was a sweet soul. She lived life to the fullest and LOVED God, her family, and her Willard. They are together now with God enjoying eternal life. To the family, you know how I feel about all of you. I know that you are happy as well that she's no longer in pain and will suffer no more. "Thank You Father God."

“Marilyn was a sweet lady and a graduate of Oklahoma City's Frederick A. Douglass High School class of 1957. Her life story was very interesting. She and her twin sister, Carolyn, became good friends of mine some years later after graduation. I will miss her. My deepest sympathy to the family of Marilyn Dallas at this time of sorrow. She was loved by many. Rest in God's wonderful rest.
