“ Mom is a sweet, beautiful, strong, powerful woman. I say IS because her spirit is with us. She is now allowed to spread her wings and show the other angels she walked among us all along. She introduced me to Max Lucado. She taught me how to pray. She mothered me from the moment we met. She embodies love, forgiveness, strength, and determination. She truly is part of the foundation that makes me me. I will love and honor her forever.

“ Dear lord please keep my granny safe up there and allow my granny to look down at us with you and protect us with your holy shield from evil and news that's the last thing anyone needs. I still remember the days when I used to go to my granny's house and sleep over, hug her, and more, especially the time when she fed my white beans and a raw onion lol. Love you granny and u will forever be missed. ❤️

“ Heavenly Father,

Today we lift up the beautiful soul of Mrs. Marlene Fayetta Payne, trusting that she now rests in Your perfect love and eternal peace. Lord, thank You for her life, her legacy, and the love she poured into her family. May her spirit continue to shine through every memory, every story, and every life she touched.

Father, wrap Your comforting arms around her beloved husband, Gene H. Payne, as he endures this heartbreaking loss. Strengthen him day by day, and let him feel her love still surrounding him.

We also pray for her children—Audrey, Richard, Darrel, and Katrice. Hold them close as they grieve their mother. Give them peace in the midst of pain, unity in the midst of sorrow, and comfort in the moments when the weight feels too heavy.

Bless her grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, that they may carry forward the values, the strength, and the love she instilled in this family. Let her legacy continue to grow through them.

Lord, in this time of loss, be near. Fill their hearts with Your presence, remind them that You are a God who heals the brokenhearted, and let the love Mrs. Marlene gave so freely be the light that guides them through their grief.

*May she rest in love, peace, and everlasting joy.
Amen.*

“ Some of my best memories in life were made with my Granny. I remember staying over at her house all the time, and those nights always felt like we were in our own little bubble. Throughout the day we’d play Go Fish, and she’d make me her cottage cheese with peaches and black pepper—sounds weird, but it was the best snack I’ve ever had. At night, we’d stay up late watching Golden Girls together, even though she usually fell asleep within the first 30 minutes (I see where my mom gets it from now). And I’ll always remember her singing “You Are My Sunshine” to me. I know she sang it to all her grandkids, but I always felt like it was just our song. Even now, it still feels like my song with her. These memories are pieces of her love that I’ll cherish and carry with me forever. I love you, Granny.

My Condolences to the family. This is Mary Clark in Los Angeles California. Marlene became my sister in love through the Lord we were face to face only a few times, but I am thankful to God for the spiritual connection over the phone, we both love Jesus and had so many good conversations about how we love Jesus and how good God have been to each of us we had such a wonderful Fellowship over the phone she really loved the Lord she loved teaching and sharing the good news about the love of Jesus Christ so we had a kinsey relationship I will always treasure. May precious Memories give you Joy Peace, & Hope, absent from the body is present with the Lord. Much Love, Prayer & Peace to the family.
