“ Thank you for inspiring me and instilling the love of Christ, and family values in me. Happy that you and the Lord were the bank I could deposit my tears, my hurts and worries to. I appreciate the unconditional love and sacrifices that you made for me, they will always be remembered. Thank you for giving me a sense of worth by just being there for me. Your love in my heart always.

“ Mama your surly going to be missed. I keep hearing the song in my head by Shirley Caesar “I remember Mama” on Sundays morning you would Love to hear that song on the radio/cassette, you would have a tear running down your face. I did not understand because I was young but now since I am older, I understand. May your soul be at easy now. I know my father will take good care of you. Mommy(Deniece) said welcome for Eternity. I am so glad you loved and raise me, I loved the Lord with all my heart. Me and the girls are going to be alright. LOVE YOU FOREVER!!!
