College and Beyond: Devry University

At her best, she loved sports, music, food, her family, and she loved to laugh. She loved without conditions, and her sacrifices were many yet, she never complained about anything. Her love and nurturing qualities extended the generations as she cared not only for her children but her children's children and beyond. She was a kind and gentle, yet strong. She was private but selfless towards to the family she held so dear. She was our EVERYTHING.
