“ Its hart felt when God call someone close to you Home, but it's “God's Call”. He want us to remember the time spent, the love received, and all the “good times” we had.
1st Cousin Mary and I were very close when we were about the age from 6-9yrs old when she come to visit her aunts here in OKC, they lived across the street from us on 5th & Gary St. every Saturday we went to the movies at Aldridge theatre on 2nd St. with 10 cents. As adults we talk occasionally on the phone with long conversations about family and life.

Rest Mary you're now in the harms of the Lord. We all in due time will meet again. 🙏

“ As you all navigate this difficult period, I will keep my siblings close in my thoughts and prayers, asking for strength and comfort for each of them. Although I may be a half-sister, my love and concern for our family is unwavering, just as if we all shared the same bonds of both our mother and father. I want you all to know that I love each and every one of you deeply, and I am here for you as you all face this challenging time. I want to take a moment to express my deepest and most heartfelt gratitude to the entire family. Throughout my life, Ms. Mary has consistently shown me kindness and warmth, making me feel welcomed and cherished. I fondly remember the numerous days I spent at her house during my younger years, where she treated me as if I were her own child. Those moments we shared hold a special place in my heart, and I am truly grateful for the love and care she extended to me during those times.

“ Ms. Mary Ms. Mary Mary I had to keep say her name for the sweet amazing wonderful woman she was. She embraced and loved me and my daughter to her family as her own. When I say the woman was one of a kind she truly was one of a kind jewel. I will miss our phone calls and to hear her say ChickaBoo I miss and love you one more time. I remember the first time Ms. Mary made me really laugh was at a basketball game when she said she was going to take her walker to one of the refs for calling a bad play on Kierra when I first meet them. She was hilarious to me. Ms. Mary will always hold a special place in my heart and will be missed dearly. She may be gone but definitely never will she be forgotten. Love you much Ms. Mary

Extraordinary lady with lots of love to share I remember the last time I saw you Tracy was having a garage sale at Fran's house. We talk for a minute about the kids love you and miss you dearly, but I know you're sitting at feet of Jesus having a daughter Father talk. ❤️🙏

Miss Mary, you are truly missed. I loved your family and truly appreciate what you did for my team, helping with transportation, being very supportive of the young ladies who played when Traci was in Middle School, and always being a loving parent. Rest In Peace.
