“ Mother Brown would always open her home and heart to my family. She will be missed, but I'm reminded of our place on earth being a dressing room. God makes no mistakes. Our continued prayers are with your family.

“ I send my sincere condolences to the Brown family for I am so sorry for your loss. First Lady & Mother Maxine Brown was a kind, loving, elegant, humble, patience, courage, diligence, wisdom, devotion, gentle and an example of a true Women of God. I remember when I lived next door to the Browns I went to church with them every time the church doors was open. Mo. Brown was one of the reason that I know God today. I will ALWAYS be Thankful and Appreciative for her taking me to church with them. Virtuous Woman (Proverbs 31) Thank You! Love, Lady Phyllis Adams
