“ Love you and will always miss you. And thank you for the musical compliments and things you taught me. You were a jewel on earth and now a star in the sky. You really believed in my talents. And I needed that confidence you put inside. This hurts but, GOD make mistakes.

“ I miss the way she would come into a room, and lighten it up. She would have everybody laughing. What I loved the most is how she became my daughter at 13. She might of not been born to me but you couldn't tell her that. She was more there for me than my own children. Not a day goes by tha someone brings her up and my tears fall. I miss u more than anything on the world. We all miss her. I love u micah. I know God had other plans for you but u live on thru ur daughter. Anytime I need to b close to u I visit my granddaughter.
