“ Monique Stanfield was more than just a friend. I affectionately called her Mother Dear-whom I dearly loved. She chose me as her other daughter. Mother Dear was a person that loved children, even though she had many of her own. She accepted my children as her own. Mother Dear had such a big heart. She would love you and correct you if needed . Mother dear did not take no stuff off especially when it came to her kids. Her faith in the Lord was unwavering. Sometimes you could hear her sing praises to God while cooking. She sang with the United Ladies chorus many years. Her strong soprano voice is missed. I shall miss her phone calls, her laughter and her wisdom that she shared with me each time we spoke mother dear no one can take your place and you are dearly missed.
