

Mr. Kobe Williams

November 15, 2015

Service: Saturday-November-21st 11:00 a.m. Rolfe Memorial Chapel 2936 NE
36th St.

Tribute Wall

MA

“ child does not even have a bed. She sleeps on the floor in a mloibe home that has no heat in her room. It is infested with black mold and has a hole in the shower wall the goes into another room. I want to know if there is something I can do to help this child. She is an emotional mess and even though I have called SS and she has talked with SS I was made to take her home. Her mother and father have moved her so many times that she is having to take 9th grade again for the 3rd time. Is there a way I can go before a judgewith in my county with her to let her tell a judge of her situation to get her help. I have been a family friend for many years and the said child has been left at my house months on end with a phone call here or there saying they knew I would take care of her. This was after she was dropped of for just the weekend with nothing but the clothes on her back. I went and bought her her on personal effects and clothes and even went so far as to by her a bed so she would not have to share or sleep on the couch but have her own personal space. There has to be something that can be done in North Carolina to help her. She needs a stable and emotionally sound environment. Can you help me?? <http://noefsvvl.com> [url=<http://ehkvudwrah.com>] ehkvudwrah[url] [link=<http://kyeqzpz.com>]kyeqzpz[link]

Mariem - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM

AH

“ Chris, I agree with you, if you identify the prime movers of BAPCA with the banks. And I do think that they were the most important players. However, I believe that there were other important figures who swallowed the morality play hook, line, and sinker. I once heard Judge Edith Jones speak to a non-public audience. (She is Chief Judge of the Fifth Circuit who had a fair amount of influence in the BAPCA debate.) It was all morality, very thinly disguised as economics. I don't think she was faking it. A lot of people on the right are very driven by moral concerns.

Ahmed - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM

SO

“ I lost my dad in late October 4 years ago, that was tough. Then 2 years ago, the Sunday after Thanksgiving, my husband had a brain aneurysm. It was very scary. We were in neuro-ICU for almost 2 weeks. Christmas time was happening without us. Amazingly, by the grace of God, he came out of it fine and no lasting effects, but that Christmas was very different, and has changed our attitude about what is important. I hope that time has lessened the blow, even just a little, and that this Christmas will be more joyful for your family, even if it is bittersweet Bernice

Somanna - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM

FM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and may God give all of you comfort. Matthew 5:4

Flossie McCoy - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DF

“ I would Like to give deepest sympathy to the family sorry for your Loss, What I would like to do is give the family something very comforting from Gods word the Bible it\\'s a promise he said he was going to do for all mankind soon when the family get time please take a moment to read the promise that\\'s going to happen here at Isaiah 26:19 And Revelation 21:1-4 may this bring comfort to the whole family you all our in our prayers.

Darrin Fitz - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM

PA

“ Kobe.. You were the best Brother in law anyone could ask for. You were. A selfless person. Quick to give and easy to get along with. You showed love to your babies and did your very best to provide for them. You will always be in my heart! I love you and will miss you greatly! Rest in Sweet Sweet Peace Kobe.. Priscilla, Isaiah, Cieara, Christian & Macayla

Priscilla Applin - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM