“ Daddy, I am so heart broken that I didn't get to say good bye to you. What I do know I will see you again. Your indeed The "Real" McCoy" there will never be another like you. Thank you for your words of encouragement, your prayers, and keeping my faith strong by your example. I promised you I will not let your grand daughters fail and be average. I will push as long as I have breath in my body to ensure they become the women God designed them to be. Love you Daddy!
