“ I am so deeply sorry to learn about the passing of your loved one Murphy. I am sure that the many fond memories of him will forever live in your minds and hearts. How wonderful to know that the time will soon come when there will be no more suffering, pain or death. I pray that the loving support of caring friends will provide you with comfort and that you know how much others care and share your loss. Once again I am sorry for the death of Mr. Murphy. John5:28-29 assures us that we will see our loved ones again!!
