“ I will miss you, great-aunt Jean. I'll always have memories of being a kid and running outside around your house. Now, as an adult, being able to see you and visit in that same big house. Meant so much to me that you had mom and myself over to see how you were doing. I am so glad you are in heaven and all is well. Love you. Nasha

“ Heaven has gained a beautiful soul. Sis. James was one of the sweetest persons I've ever known. She was a true friend. She and I shared several memories and conversations of persons we both had in common. Every time I would see her she had a smile and would ask me about my mom. I loved this sweet lady. Until we meet again my friend.
