“ One of my oldest and sweetness memories of Mama was when I, Yolanda, was 9 years old, and in the 4th grade. My class was going on a field trip to the the Bicentennial Freedom Train that toured the Country and came through OKC. I needed 3 dollars for the trip, and I had worried her for it.

However, the morning (May 19, 1976) of the trip was the day my brother Carl was born. So, she was actual in labor that morning. But, when I got up she had left the 3 dollars on the dining room table for me.

It has always touched me that even as she was in labor, she was thinking on me and stopped to put the money on the table on her way to give birth. I felt she that she was always thinking of me.

I am glad that she was surrounded by love when she passed on.
RIP Mama.
