Paul could play basketball like a Pro. He and family members won lots of trophies. He could bowl and was in a bowling league until his feet started bothering him. Dominoes was a natural for Paul and he won most of the games he played against you or other people. He loved to play cards and also loved watching Chicago PD and Unsolved Mysteries. NCIS was his favorite. He loved Sports and football was what he loved the most. He also liked tennis, baseball, and basketball. He joined North Highland Seventh Day Adventist Church where he attended regularly and worked in the church until his health started to fail. Paul loved Jesus and knew the Word quite well.

He started at the Oklahoma Tax Commission and held various positions until he advanced into the Auditor's Position. He was one of the best Auditors there at that time. He knew his Tax form with expertise and would work any tax forms they put in front of him. Paul left the Tax Commission on September 1, 2013 and worked there 31 years.

He was beloved by many and will be missed by all.
