“ The Hurley family & my family are related through our grandparents. I will never forget the kind heart Peggy had. I distinctly remember how she opened her home to myself & my mother when coming through a fog storm with low visibility. Peggy opened her doors & allowed us to stay until the fog had subsided. She will be richly missed.

“ When i first met Ms. Peggy she had such a warm welcome for me and it stayed and remained the same. Every time i visited her she showed me so much love and always had a listening ear. I just want to say to the family thank you for sharing Ms. Peggy with me. She will always remain so special to me and my prayers are with you. Heaven has gained a Beautiful Angel.
