“ "The Best Brown Family Reunion" was hosted by Peter when he lived in Las Vegas. It was our 18th Family Reunion held in 1994. We had a blast starting with loading onto the plane with about 30 family members wearing blue Brown Family Reunion tshirt. Once we arrived at our destination, we traveled in several 18 passenger vans. We journeyed around mountains to get to "Hoover Dam", visiting Red Fox, Gladys's Knight and other celebrity neighborhood and special sights.. The older generation stayed at Peter's home and the remainder of us stayed at the Excalibur hotel. We took a tour of all the different hotels and the special events. The dinner every night was at Peter's home with a spread of food fit for a " King & Queen".

Thank you Brother for hosting such a wonderful opportunity for our family to get together and celebrate a great fellowship. Your Baby Sister, Gerrie

“ During the early 60s, Uncle Peter allowed my mom, Mildred, to live with him while he was stationed in North Carolina. I am forever great full to him m for that.
