“ I remember Prentis sand Estelle from when I was a kid growing up, it was my dad Leroy, Prentis, Ricky and Emcee, man that was so many many years ago, all drinking buddies, such a time they would have, watching football and cutting up, Prentis was so much fun to be around what a joy he was cracking jokes, I know you are back with Estelle now and your buddies from your young days, still cracking jokes and having fun celebrating eternally now.

“ I first became acquainted with brother Green and his wife Estelle while attending the True Vine Independent Baptist Church Northeast Mission where we were all members. Brother Green had a one of a kind laugh and a big personality that could fill up a room. He will be greatly missed. To his family, you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To the family of Mr. Prentis, I loved to ease drop on he and my daddy's conversations. They spoke often, and no matter how he was feeling he always managed to encourage and be funny. The last conversation I ease dropped on they were talking politics and it was HILARIOUS! His huge voice & laugh will remain in my ear. ❤️ Mr. Prentis will be greatly missed. Prayers to you all.

“ To the family of Mr. Green,
I loved ease dropping in on he and my daddy's conversations. They spoke often and had great talks. A politics conversation was the last conversation I listened to and it was HILARIOUS! Although Mr. Green was going through, he always managed to encourage and have something funny to say. His huge voice will forever ring in my ear. ❤️ He was loved, appreciated, & will be greatly missed. Prayers going out to you all.
