Quinton was some what of a free spirit, but he loved his family. There are no adequate words to say that express our level of pain, despair and devastation that we are feeling right now. We do have the glorious memories of his life that we shared for these low many years. God is still God, and, He is still Good. Right now, we put it all in His hands.

“ John praying Jesus would be a comfort and strength to you, your mom and your family. Quinton loved the Lord; he loved teaching, Sunday School and especially Evangelism. Not only did he teach Evangelism, he practiced it daily. He was indeed a witness for Christ. He will truly be missed! Love Wallford & Linda Harrell

“ My dear friend, Quinton Maurice Black, the first Quinton I'd ever met. It's just so hard to believe! Quinton was one of those people small in stature but bigger than life. I offer my deepest sympathy to Ms. Mary (Sister), John, Germain, & Sheila Johnson who I've grown to know as family. Quinton was the first member of the family who ventured out, walking four houses down to meet me after they'd moved to 16th street over 52 yrs ago. He was my racing buddy, bike riding buddy & walking buddy when we were kids. The Black family brought joy to the whole neighborhood, & I am forever grateful. After we reconnected yrs ago we began exchanging Christmas cards every yr., Quinton would always write a beautiful encouraging message inside. When we saw one another at an event he'd always say to me, " Paulene, it's so good to see you, love you," with a big smile. Though our hearts are broken for such a great loss, we are confident in knowing where Quinton is right now, in the precious, safe & loving arms of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If I got a glimpse of Him I wouldn't have stayed here either! We love you all. We are praying that God's peace, grace, mercy & comfort will guard your heart & minds as you go through this difficult time of grief.

I use to live nextdoor to the Blacks there on Page Street. The whole family were great neighbors, but Quinton and I had a very special bond and we could talk about anything. One very special memory that I have with Quinton was that we went to a Diana Ross concert together and he had connections that allowed us to go backstage and meet her and I still have that autograph. After we moved I lost contact, but I often thought of him. Quinton was a very sweet person and he will truly be missed. My sincere condolences to the family. You are in my prayers.

“ Oh my dear friend, Mr. Quinton Black! I already miss the daily text messages wishing a blessed day, the many phone calls and visits. It has been such an honor to know you and to know that I am considered your friend. I will continue to cherish the many, many, many memories that the 2 of us created as friends. May you take your rest in the bosom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Quinton, I don't have the words, but I will definitely miss you.
