Our loving memory of Rayven Paige

On April 19, 2021 our beloved Rayven Paige Mailloux answered the call from her Heavenly Father to serve among His angels.

Rayven was born April 12, 1991 at Southwest Medical Center in Liberal, KS

Rayven's father, Raymond Lucien Mailloux and mother, Cheryl Kay (Hoeme) Mailloux were two of the proudest parents from the very moment she came into their lives.

Rayven was given her name by her grandma Judy. She loved her name and especially her initials, RPM. She believed that it is marked clearly on the dashboard of every car so that everyone won't forget her.

Rayven attended grade school in Liberal, KS and was always the funny kid that believed that every day was about show and tell and knock-knock jokes.

1999 Rayven attended school in Murchison, TX and absolutely loved everything about it. She played basketball and made a spot on the cheerleading squad. It was there she began making many close lifelong friends like Anika Mosler, Kyrsti Malone, The Cliff Cooper family as well as the Troy Vaughn family.

In 2001 Rayven attended First Baptist Church in Murchison, TX and it was there that she made the decision to be baptized alongside her dad and they both confirmed their faith in God that day.

In 2004 Rayven and her parents moved to El Reno, OK where Rayven would finish out the rest of her education. She graduated from El Reno High School in 2009.

Rayven's favorite things were spontaneous adventures, visiting old friends and letting them know they are loved.

Some days Rayven loved taking a drive on the I-40 Interstate and other days she wanted to take the backroads and enjoy the lay of the land. She loved the small-town feel of El Reno and all it had to offer, like the burger of the day, or the grass car races and most definitely good ol' Lake El Reno. She had certain hiding spots all around the lake.

Rayven loved to be the life of the party, always capturing the audience's attention. She loved to find beauty in people and the things around her. She would gobble up your lunch and laugh about it with a mouth full of food. She loved to control the knobs and switches on your vehicle from the passenger seat.

Rayven was all about makeovers, big bouffant hair-dos, wardrobe ensembles and anything goes. Her motto was "if you got it, flaunt it."

Rayven's passion in life was singing and if you've ever met her, you've probably heard her belt out a song or two. She always gave it her all and was proud to sing at The Oklahoma Opry, Oklahoma City Downtown venues and was also given the proud honor several times to open with the National Anthem for the OKC Rage in the Cage MMA matches.

There are generations of family members that have passed from earth and are now rejoicing because Rayven has joined them. She is preceded in death by both grandfathers, Alfred Mailloux and Larry Hoeme, crazy Aunt Rhonda and Uncle Randy Johnson.

Rayven is survived by her parents, Ray and Cheryl Mailloux, Grandmother, Judy Hoeme, Aunts Ruthie and Marlena Johnson; Uncle Scott and Aunt Trish McDowell; close friend, Riley Duckworth ; Cousins; Curtis and Chanda Moore, Kaylyn, Brody, Brayden, Kelly Gene Moore, Mike and Shamara Ludwig, Brianna, Addison, Geno McBride, Joe and Sarah Ledbetter, Hailey, Lane, Joseph Johnson, Jeremy Johnson, Higgie, Ambo, Cody, Raegan, Elijah, Uncle Bob, Joe, Taylor, Pepito, Vero, Grandma Dee, Kimberly, Debbie, Brittany, Mindy, Chad, Kayla Renee

Rayven, we loved you more than words can express. We are so grateful for the time God gave us together to love, laugh, cry and grow together. You were our pride and joy; until we see you again.

“ It was a pleasure to have known your life, and your love for life, and the Lord. Your family is our family. You never met a stranger or missed singing a beautiful song. You even shared your snacks out of your snack jar. Jo-Nathan and you are probably turning heaving upside down having the time of your life. I love and miss you both dearly. I cherish the day my life's work is done, and I get to join my loved ones, you included in our heavenly home. Rest easy, RPM! Love you!

“ If I could share all the memories I had with my cousin Rayven there'd be a book full. She was one of my favorites. Always gave me the biggest hugs and showed me how important I was to her. When I was little and went to visit her in Oklahoma I was attached to her hip and always buggin her, but she never complained about it. I remember when I was little her and I were coloring in a princess coloring book and she took this black crayon and drew over the outline of Cinderella . It made Cinderella on the page look 3-D and till this day I color like that. She not only taught me some coloring tricks but she taught me some things about makeup too. If anyone knows me I've always got into everyone's makeup bag and see what they got for me to throw on my face , well hers was one of them, I had put on some of her makeup and she said “that's my breezy, easy breezy beautiful!” she wanted me to have my own makeup so she took me to the store and got me all my own makeup on my 13th birthday and got me some new clothes too. That was one of the best days I've had with her, I've got so many stories that I can't fit all on this page but I love and miss you cousin Rayven and I will forever cherish our fun and crazy memories together.

“ Somewhere i have heard that, in life your cousins will be your first friends. And for some that may not be true, but for me it was. My cousin, Rayven Paige Mailloux, was my first friend.

She was a loud and proud little blue eyed girl that was the only Child to Ray and Cheryl Mailloux. She loved to sing and she was beautiful. She had jet black hair and some real killer legs. Her voice was loud and she could carry a tune. She loved big loud trucks. She loved country. And i loved her. Over the past years i seen her change, i seen her struggle. I tried to always answer that phone call. Just to hear “hay babe i miss you. Love you beautiful” she was always so sweet to me. And i wanted nothing else but to see her thrive. But that all came to a screeching halt. When i recieved word that she has passed away. The demons she was fighting, the battles she struggled with were stronger. And now we have lost a beautiful soul. All she ever wanted was to be loved and to show love. I loved her, and id love to keep her memory strong. I dont want to forget about her and i want people to remember her for the good that was still inside her. Dont remember her for the path she went down. But let us remember that big singin voice, that big smile, that beautiful black bird.

I really loved you RPM, and i hope you find a cool spot in heaven to wait for me.
