Rodney Dewayne Pope was born on January 20th, 1966, in Oklahoma City, OK, to Lucille Pope.

Rodney attended Frederick Douglas High School. After graduating in 1984, he went on to attend Southwestern College in Kansas on a full-ride football scholarship. He played as a defensive lineman for two years before returning to Oklahoma.

Rodney had an adventurous heart; he was a dreamer. He found joy in many different skills and trades along the way. He spent time working in customer service, warehouse production, and even in cleaning services just to be closer to one of his children.

Of his many accomplishments, his children, mother, and brother were what made him the proudest. He had a loving relationship with his daughters, Channell, Ashlyn, Alicia, and his son Daniel.

Rodney was preceded in death by his baby girl, Danielle, his wife Kristy Witt Pope, His brother Ricky Lee Pope, his grandparents, and several aunts and uncles.

Rodney had several close friends that he enjoyed spending time with, including his cousin Kinard. There is no one Rodney enjoyed more than his mother. They loved each other deeply and got to spend many of Rodney's last days together, creating memories that would last forever.

Rodney leaves behind his daughters Channell, Ashlyn, & Alicia. His son, Daniel. His grandchildren, Peyton, Arianna, Elianna, Christian, and Pippen. His niece and nephew, Morgan & Ric'Kee. He has also left behind several cousins and other family members.
