“ Mr. Ronnie was a spunky gentleman, full of life. I recently had the pleasure of speaking with him on a day when I really needed some joy. Mr. Ronnie did just that, he shared a lot of wisdom, reminisced of old times, made me laugh. He never complained, his laughter contagious, his spirit genuine. He will be missed.

“ I remember starting at the hospital a few years back. He did as the old timers would do. Came by, introduced himself, then asked who my people were. I told him. He lit up as he recalled playing baseball with my dad and other neighborhood guys. He was always friendly whether I saw him in the hospital or sitting on his front stoop. He will be missed.
