March 14, 1938 - June 27, 2020

The service for Mr. Graves will be live-streamed on UTube. Go to UTube and search for the Wilshire Church of Christ then look for Mr. Graves' name.

Name of Decedent: Roy Lee Graves Sr.

Date of Birth: 3/14/1938

City of Birth: Center Point Arkansas

Father: Ferdinand Graves

Mother: Mamie Alice Graves (Whitmore)

Sisters: (5) Sisters and (2) Brothers preceded him in death

Surviving brothers: Ferdinand D. Graves Jr., Kansas City, Missouri, and Joe W. and (Dottie) Graves, Decatur, Georgia.

Grandchildren: 10 Grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren

Occupation: Truck Driver

Education: High School Graduate - Douglass High School

College and Beyond: N/A

My father was a successful entrepreneur he started his own trucking company, which included delivering freight across the United States. He believed in recycling - he never threw anything away. He loved fishing, and working in his yard. Most of all he loved attending church every Sunday and interacting with people. He was a great story and joke teller and a great penny pincher. Daddy, you will be truly missed. You gave us life and you taught us about life...Love you always, Your children and grandchildren.

“ Uncle Roy! I'm gonna miss him. Oh how he use to make us laugh, telling some ghostly stories when he would come over to the house in the (50s/60s). Don't let him and our mom (Nellie Mae his sister) get to talking about the Bible, cause they would go for a long.....time. Thank you God for having Uncle Roy be a big part of our young/older life. Stay strong together Cynthia,, Bubba, and Johnny.
