

Mr. Sammy Lee Langley

July 13, 1961 - August 18, 2021

There will not be viewing or a service for Mr. Langley.

Mr. Langley was a loving father and husband. Sammy, also known as Hawkman, was an Army Veteran who was proud of serving his country. He loved NASCAR, watching the Redskins play, and cooking out on the grill any chance he got. His presence left a lasting impression on many and he will be truly missed by all that knew him.

“ I will miss seeing you every once in a while when I take trips to Ada or catching you with Aunt Beta when we crossed paths in the city! I'll miss seeing that smile and hearing that country accent that you carried so well! I will always remember your jokes and that smirky grin that you'd give after telling one of them. You were a great man and I am grateful to have known you! Love you! ❤️
