“ Sandy and her family have been family friends since since 1967 or 68. Sandy and I would buy the 45 single records to dance by. Once we made identical wide leg jumpsuit for a Northeast high school basketball game and other outfits for the good old days house parties. Like most childhood friendships I was the godmother of her first born son J. Even though we no longer lived in the same state we always greeted each other with the same happy smiles when I was in OKC visiting. I'll truly miss you Sandy (my sister/friend) My sincere Condolences and Prayers to her mother, children, grandchildren, sisters and brother. Asking for God's Blessings over each of you 🙏
