“ so sorry to hear of your departure, but your absence from us, could mean only you're with our Lord. your friendship meant the world to me, and those times we spent together were memories made. as students, we solved many situations whenever we'd gather in the student union building. no one would believe we came up with putting decorations on babies pampers lol that could have made us lol quite comfortable. rest in the arms of our Creator until we meet again, journey well, my friend. your Rose State College family loves you. Joyce Williams & family.
