“ I would like to give my deepest condolences to the whole family So sorry for your loss, losing a love one is a very hard thing to deal with but what I would like to do is share something very comforting with you its a promise from Gods word I believe that his word gives us comfort during a time like this and any of problems that we all may deal with in our life his word gives us a true promise that all the things that plagues mankind like sickness and suffering and death will be no more is that not something comforting to know that Gods word gives us comfort and truth may this scripture bring comfort to your family you are in our prayers.

“ God saw you getting tired so he wrapped his arms around you and whispered "COME TO ME." So he gave you a rest God's garden must be beautiful, For he only take the best. When I saw you sleeping so peaceful and free from pain I could not wish you back to suffer again. One day we will meet again so I can hear you say "WHAT YOU WANT." Love you Granny!!!

“ To Sara's family, you have my deepest condolences. I had a nice relationship with Sara beginning from when we worked together. I know words cannot make up for her loss but I hope these scriptures can possibly do for you what they do for me with the loss of a loved one.

1 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. 2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. 4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. May God bless and keep you all.
