

Mrs. Sheila Lane Sims

February 24, 1954 - July 18, 2017

Sheila Lane was born February 24, 1954 to Elder Elvin Lane Sr. and Delois Lane in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Both parents preceded her in death. She was the 2nd of six children. Sheila began her education at Edison Elementary, and from there she attended Northeast Junior High and Douglas High School. She also attended Central State University, and received her Bachelor of Science Degree from Southern Nazarene University. Sheila retired after working 30 years of diligent service from the United States Government. Sheila was a faithful and active member of The Church of the Living God Ministries, were Pastor Kenneth Morgan Presided. She passionately worked diligently in the capacities of Pastor's Aide, Mission Department and other areas of the Church. Sheila had a heart of gold, a gift of giving, and she loved to travel. Family was everything to her. Sheila was also a marvelous cook and an excellent baker. Sheila also blessed us with her impeccable voice in song. She sang selections such as: "Silver and Gold", "I am God", "Constantly" and the list goes on. In June of 1977 she married the love of her life Dedrick Sims Jr. They were blessed with four Beautiful and Amazing daughters: Nakia, LaRita (Bell), Latoya, and Kaylee. They also have three Grandchildren: Aaliyah, Braxton, and Carson Rogers. Sheila played a big role in her daughters lives. She was adamant about education and was a stickler about how they carried themselves and represented God and family. Sheila knew no strangers and she enveloped whoever came her way. She had many special friends and even family that she called her sisters and brothers. Sheila also leaves to cherish her memory her siblings; four brothers: Elvin Lane Jr., Tracy Lane (Jacquelyn), Darryl Lane, Lawrence Lane, and one sister, Larita Lane. Sheila also leaves and cherishes many Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and many friends. Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write: 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.' " "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow them." Revelation 14:13.

“ Sheila was so welcoming to strangers, everyone was a friend and she greeted them with a joyful smile. Over the years we became closer and shared a lot of laughter and sometimes tears. Always happy to see each other (as if it was just yesterday). I will miss her friendship and sisterhood in faith. Sheila was an AMAZING Woman and touched many lives. She will be missed.

To her family, May you find comfort in your Love for each other and special memories shared over the years. Look back with fondness not tears (of sadness) but Joy.

God Bless. Rosemarie

“*Ms. Wani" is what she calls me, she is loved and respected by many b/c she respected and loved us. She fusses at me like a little sister, that is why i feel so sad in loosing her, but to know that she is in the presence of the One that loved her enough to die for her, i feel joyful,
I can only imagine her leaping for joy; no more pain, no more tears, no more worries for that I will say thank you JESUS. To her family please, be encouraged may the love of God, of Sheila, of family and friends comfort you, is my prayer.*

“ Sheila lived her faith in Jesus and shared that faith through the love she gave to her husband, daughters, family and friends. She had a strong sense of right and wrong, and did not hesitate to speak that truth to those she loved, or to admonish herself when she fell short of her own standards. She never met a stranger, and freely opened her heart to others. Oh how I will miss that warm smile, that joy-filled laugh, those big, beautiful eyes! God bless you all as you do your best to go on without her encouragement and support. Continue to make her proud. I know I will try to do so. Connie
