“ Sheriel, John and my husband (Ken) grew up in Edwards Addition on Page Avenue and they were childhood friends from early years until.... I always enjoyed listening to them tell funny stories about one another. My thoughts and prayers are with the family, especially Eric and Denice. I will miss the conversations and visits we shared over the years. Sheriel did all that she could as long as she could! Rest in comfort and peace my friend.

“ Our condolence and sympathy are extended to the family of Sheriel Bluit Waldrop. We have loss a loving Douglass HS classmate of 1957, a good friend, and a faithful Christian. Sheriel's life was one that was exemplary, loving, caring, dedicated, and committed to her family, friends, classmates, and co-workers. She will be missed but always held in our memories.
