“ Oh the laughed we shared as young children and then becoming adults God surely blessed me with one of the best. To help keep her memories alive my first granddaughter was born on her birthday. I will miss you but I will surely treasure All of our wonderful memories. Rest easy my dear sister and know you will always be loved. Michelle❤️

Hello Family of my dear Sister Sherry. I am Reverend Larry Foster, Sr.. You have my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences.

I grew up on 15th & Kate in OKC where Sherry, her Mother and Brother Ronald once lived.

Sherry was very nice friend and always had a smile for everybody. I remember her Mother Ms. Velma and Brother Ronald. However, I don't remember the exact year they moved from the neighborhood. My family still owns the house we grew up in.

Even though I never saw her since those days I did get to see her one time she was revisiting the old neighborhood.

I was able to sometimes communicate with her on Facebook. Even though I didn't see her often, it still saddens me that she has transitioned.

To the family Matthew 5:4 assures that "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted."

Yours In Christ,

*Reverend Larry Foster, Sr., Pastor
