“ Coach...I don't know all the words possible to share what you meant to our family. I cried the day I heard. You were such an amazing coach to the boys. To all kids. You were someone they looked up to. One of the few people they would willingly give up a Saturday morning for. You encouraged them - you taught them so much. You are the reason Austin is still playing football today. He almost gave up - you kept refocused him and showed him what other coaches didn't see. I know you had this effect on many other kids too. This world has lost a fantastic man and I promise you - you will be missed greatly and NEVER ever forgotten. #123RAVENS

“ Sylvester “Coach” Tillman was an exceptional person. I can honestly say he inspired my son's life in a way no one had before and no one has since. He was sincere, honest, loving and firm as a coach to the players he coached. It saddens my heart that the earth lost such a great man. Prayers are being said for peace and comfort for the family.

“ I am saddened by the untimely loss our family has recently suffered, but as a family we shall remain strong sharing in the journey to find peace with GOD'S plan. You'll remain with us all...in our hearts and shared memories that carries on forever. There has been many tears shed but there is a sacredness in our tears. Tears aren't the mark of weakness, but of POWER. They're messengers of overwhelming grief and unspeakable love that speaks more eloquently than ten million tongues. Take your eternal rest in Heaven big cousin. Until we meet again.
