With hearts full of both sorrow and gratitude, we celebrate the beautiful life of Tamika Demee of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Tamika was the heartbeat of her family—a devoted daughter, a loving mother, a cherished sister, and a loyal friend. She had a gift for lighting up any room with her joy, laughter, and genuine care for others. Her passion for nurturing extended far beyond her career—she was a natural teacher and advocate, especially when it came to the tiniest among us.

Born on May 11, 1977, in Oklahoma City to Marie Barnaba Moore and Clovis Prince, Tamika was raised with strong family roots. From a young age, she was drawn to caring for others, and that calling eventually led her to a lifelong career in nursing. Her family connection remained at the center of everything she did.

“ Tamika, I will never forget the time you invited us to your house for Halloween. It was one of the best times Jalani and I had! I look at those pictures and think about how much fun we had. Not to mention what an amazing educator you were. Your spirit was so kind, so loving, positive, and so much fun. You indeed made a difference. I love you and will miss you. Praying for your family.

“ Mika and went to church during our young adult years and we both sang in the choir together. She was truly a inspiration to all that she crossed paths with. Even in her darkest most painful hours and days, she always wore a smile. The imprint that she left on everyone's heart is irreplaceable. Sending sincere prayers to her entire family especially her four babies. Soar high Mika for your assignment is done on this side. R.I.P you'll definitely be missed by all.
