“ I wanted to share how much joy Tiffany was. I use to babysit her as a child and every day she would have a funny story about school. I looked forward to seeing her big eyes and beautiful smile. As she got older, she was always respectful and full of joy. Over the years, we lost touch but I would ask about her all the time. My heart is saddened by her passing. She was so easy to love. Praying for the family. Much love.

“ Weeping may go through many nights but find joy in the mornings. Was very sad to see such a familiar face when I was a kid I rember her voice like it was yesterday she is so beautiful may she sleep in peace! Prayers are with your family.

“ I remember my daughter and Tiffany growing up and singing in the junior choir at the old Truevine church. My heart bleeds for you Linda. You are such a beautiful and kind lady. God has his own plan for our lives but I hurt seeing you having to go thru this. You have a wonderful husband. Lean on the Lord and let your husband help you get you to the next step. If you need to talk you can call me. God bless you and your family with grace and mercy. Love you Beautiful.

We were so saddened to hear of Tiffany's passing. She was a beautiful woman both inside and out. Without a doubt she is now resting in the arms of Jesus. To her family, thank you for sharing such a loving and compassionate woman with us. She will be sorely missed but never forgotten. Rest in peace sweet precious baby girl. Family, you remain in our thoughts and prayers.
