“ Travis was a great man and a great friend. I was blessed to be his next door neighbor for eight years. Travis and Chanel were there for me and my family and they always made us feel like family. I have many fond memories of hanging out together, playing games, sharing food and just talking together. Travis and I shared the same first name and we always called each other Big T. Big T made me laugh when I found out why he put out yellow light bulbs on the house. He said they wouldn't attract bugs because he wasn't very fond of those little bugs coming after him. I told him such a big man shouldn't be scared of a little bug. Travis had a big heart and he treated my son like he was one of his own. Big T always had some candy ready for Brett when he came over to visit and went upstairs to watch T beat me in some Madden football. I can't believe he is gone. My heart hurts over his passing but I am thankful for the time I had with him in my life. I am sorry I was unable to make the service in person.
