“ Velma(Polly) and I went to high school together. We really didn't become close friends until later. We would talk everyday two or sometimes three times daily. We shared a lot of situations that occurred in both family. We became sisters, not just friends. We always talked about God and His Goodness. Sissy I love and miss you more than I can express. One day we will be together again. Your Sis Ann (McFadden) Quillen ”
