“ Dad, I will love and cherish the time we had together, although it was short it was a God sent blessing. I remember the first time I heard your voice on the phone, and seeing you for the first time. You were so handsome and looked at peace, and I am proud to say you are my Father. I will always love you, and God be with you.

“ I just met Vic through his daughter. But it seems like I've know him a life time. Inspite of what he was going through he always was smiling. So, I couldnt help but to smile!

“ My condolences to The Degrade Family and Friends. Words can not express your hearts pain of losing a dear one. I'll like to share he helped me. Death is not what God wants for human kind, so he promise that our dead ones will live because the earth will release those powerless in death come to life. (Isaiah 26:19) May this bring you comfort until God promises come.
