“ My brother, Wendell, was suave and brainy in an unobtrusive way. He was smart and had a sharp memory that constantly amazed me. He would remind me of something that happened years ago in great detail that I had long forgotten... but, not him! Wendell had lots of friends he'd known since high school and college just like my dad and he kept in touch with them all over the years. He was thoughtful and never rude or abrasive. He had a quiet and respectful presence about him that was truly admirable. When Wendell was a poor college student with no money, and a rusted out car on its last breath, whenever he came to Wichita to visit my mom, he would take her car to get washed, or to get the oil changed, and he would do little repair things for her. Wendell didn't have much himself at the time, but he always did something for her and made time for her when he was in town. He was a good dad, son, brother, soldier, and role model. He fought the good fight much longer than most with brain cancer, but now he's at peace in his heavenly home. We will miss him.

“ *To Marcie, Vicki, Van and Family,
I have you in my heart during this time of sorrow. The years that we were next door neighbors in Wichita were very special and my memory of Wendell is that he was the quiet one. Very friendly, respectful and reserved. I know he will be missed. But he is at peace.*

Marcia and family, Marcella, Vicki, Van and families; I and so sorry for your loss. I am saddened about Wendell passing, because he was like a brother to me and he will be sorely missed. Wendell was a former track & field teammate for (1) year at K-State and later a campus roommate for (2) years in Manhattan and we shared a lot of laughs and conversations about life, education, politics and family. Wendell was a smart, sharp, respectful and caring family man, and a mentally and physically strong guy. Words can't truly express my loss of a great individual, and in my last phone call to Wendell, I could sense that he was fighting the battle of his life for his family. May Wendell R.I.P; miss ya, Bro!

“ Wendell was a great friend, classmate, fellow officer and fraternity brother. He set a great example of a family man and was extremely proud of his children. I was privileged to have known him and his family. Wendell will be missed and we will see him again in the next life.

“ Good memories, always a gentleman, cool, calm, and collected, thoughtful, beloved and drove everywhere, compassionate, etc. I could go on and on. I was proud that he was the first and only lieutenant colonel in the family, a pilot- helicopter and small planes, loving father, husband and grandpa. My big bro Wendell, I will see him on the other side. We will sing and shout in heaven.
