“ I still remember my first few days at fire station six back in 1990, and talking with Wilbur, him telling me he had came on the job September 1, 1967, which was 10 days before I was born I could not believe that somebody had been fighting fire longer than I had been alive. I have so many memories from the five years that I worked with Wilbur, I was driving him on truck six on April 19, 1995, with all of the chaos surrounding us he remain calm cool and collected it was just his style, thoughts and prayers for his family
