“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Eaves when my wallet was stolen and I needed my locks changed because i kept a spare key in my wallet. I had to call on him again in January 2018 after we purchased a new house and he re-keyed my locks. RIP Mr. Eaves, no more pain. Teresa McNeely

“ My Condolences to the 'Eaves Family', may God continue to bless and watch over each one of you. Just remember the wonderful years Charles (Chucky) shared his life and precious moments with his family. I met (Chucky) many years ago when he work at Moo's Convenience Store, very nice young man. Many years later, I came in contact with him when I worked at (2) different Company's to service our copiers and his Locksmith experience, each time he would say 'what are you doing here', we both would laugh. He was well known around both offices as the 'IBM' guy. The last time I saw him some years back his health had began failing. I knew he loved his family, his business and Life. He's free from all pain and worries.....RIP !!!!

“ Chucky has been my friend for 40+ years. We would talk about life and people in our life wanting the best for all but most conversations would lead to our love for Christ & His love for us! Kendra & family, my thoughts & prayers are for you that God will comfort & give you peace today and in the days to come. To live is Christ.. to die is gain! God bless you & you are loved!

“ *

Ms. Clay, Debra, Gerrie, Marcellus, Leoddis and Joseph, it is my sincere prayer that you will find peace and comfort to carry you through this time of sorrow.

God has been good to us, the "11th Street Gang" to where we haven't been this way as often as we could've been.

My fondest memory of Chuckie is how I used to tease him about why he ALWAYS had a pocket full of keys!

Chuckie was quiet and reserved, but every now and again he'd show a sillier side. I pray that memories like this will sustain you in the days to come.

Be blessed and know that weeping may endure for a night, but JOY cometh in the morning!
