“ To the family of Ms Willie Mae King. We're sending our deepest condolences and prayers to each of you. During this time of sorrow. Family we are praying that our Heavenly Father will give you the strength and comfort that you will need to go through this. It's hard but remember God is got his loving arms around you and he will not let you down. Your mom will be highly missed. God, had built her a new home in heaven and he called her said its time for you to moved in. When she got to heaven and put on her long white robe she went and got fitted for her new wings. Everything is well, with her now. She is walking the streets that's paved with pure gold, shaking hands smiling and talking to family members and friends telling them about the place she just came from. She is in a place where there's no more pains sickness or suffering. Most of all she's in good hands with the Lord. Now she's looking down from heaven with a smile and saying. Family, don't worry about me, I'm doing fine and I am safe with the Lord. We will see her again if we live by the words of God. Please Father,if you will please keep your loving arms around family this family all together and then one by one. Willie Mae, saying goodbye In a time like this is hard. So we are going to say. May you Rest In Peace In God's Loving Arms. Praying that we'll all will meet again.
